

November 24, 2025: On Being King of the World Hunted by a Team of Fake Imposters

The essential plot of the overthrow of America is the same as the rise of Nazi-ism in Germany and in pre-Christian Babylon:

A criminal network chooses the dumbest 'fool' that they can to be their 'leader' and then they hide inside of him like a Trojan horse that they use to enter into the positions of power for their own benefit while they 'exorcise' ('exercise') their demon as a puppet over their criminal conspiracy.

I am the legitimate king of the world at this point and they are in great fear of the information that I possess in my humble household.

Seriously, why else would they be going through this much trouble to burden the life of someone that does nothing except read books and play music in his own home?

The truth is that these demons and their Trojan horse know exactly who I am and they cannot stand the fact that I have seen their criminal conspiracy in a way that even they did not previously understand.

God Bless the People of the World. May God grant you the truth and the courage to understand the best paths forward for you in your life.

Sincerely,

Chris Noel Carlin
